You or your dependent(s) are not considered Late Enrollees when you or your dependent(s) are covered under your spouse's or parent's coverage through another group and:

a) You and/or your dependent(s) are not longer eligible under your spouse's coverage because your spouse's employment or his or her group has been terminated;

b) You are no longer eligible or included under your spouse's coverage due to legal separation or divorce;

c) Your dependent is no longer eligible or included under your spouse's coverage due to legal separation or divorce or the dependent's age;

d) You and/or your dependent(s) are no longer eligible under your spouse's coverage due to the death of your spouse;

e) You are no longer eligible under your parent's coverage;

f) You and/or your dependent(s) have coverage through another group but later become ineligible for coverage through that group (including COBRA participants).

In the above situations, you will not be treated as a Late Enrollee, provided you and/or your eligible dependent(s) enroll within 31 days of the termination date of your prior coverage and submit, as necessary, a letter from your spouse's former employer. This letter must indicate when the spouse's employment terminated, whether the spouse's employment terminated, when the spouse's coverage terminated, whether the spouse was enrolled under individual or family coverage, and a statement indicating that the employer contributed toward the cost of coverage. A similar letter is also required for dependents that are no longer eligible under their parent's coverage. Please contact your Group Administrator if you have any questions about these enrollment requirements.
